

URGENT REQUEST FROM PETER & KELLY PASSCHIER

Tuesday Aug 2 at 8:45 a.m.

“We have just got word from Kelly's brother that Kelly's dad is likely being transferred to hospice care in the next few days and that she needs to come to Vancouver as soon as possible.

So we have booked her flights to start the journey tomorrow (Wed). The Chiang Rai airport is closed due to an accident so she will travel by road to Chiang Mai then fly to Bangkok and from Bangkok to Vancouver with a stop-over in Tokyo.

If the community at St. Barnabas is still willing and able to contribute to the costs we would appreciate this very much, especially as availability is limited and expensive due to the last minute nature of the booking. We also value your prayers for the journey and all its logistics, as well as the visit itself, and Peter and the boys as they remain in Chiang Rai. These are turbulent times.” Peter

All donations for Kelly's expenses will be sent to OMF by the church as soon as possible and are fully receiptable. Make sure your donation is marked for the Passchiers, whether by envelope or e-transfer (put Passchiers in the message box).
