ACW

Saint Barnabas would like to honour the ACW and their years of contributions and you can help! Please consider these questions and send your responses to Darcee Wong (email or church mailbox) before the end of December.
Favourite ACW memory? What has ACW meant to you or to our Church? Any special story or sentiment to pass on to the ACW?

L.B.'s Words of Wisdom: When troubles seem too big to bear, just fold your hands and say a prayer.

Did you know . . .

... that the Readings for this Sunday include Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24; Psalm 100; Ephesians 1:15-23; Matthew 25:31-46?

... that this Sunday we celebrate Christ the King, the last Sunday of Ordinary Time, immediately preceding Advent?

... that when God ordains it, he sustains it?!
... that Kathleen Carlyle will celebrate her 90th year on Monday, November 23? If you would like to send her a card or note, bring it to the Office before noon on Friday and it will be delivered to her on her birthday! Let's give her a bouquet of love and cards and good wishes!
... that Coffee with Reverend Oz will continue in the Hall every Thursday morning from 10-11?
... that this week, in the Windward Islands, we are praying for St. Philip in Mesopotamia with St. Matthias in Evesham and St. Joseph in Richland Park on the Island of St. Vincent with the Reverend Canon Ashton Francis?

... that our church can reach out to spread God's love and Christmas good will even though we are stuck in CoVid isolation? We can send a Christmas card/letter/note to Any Canadian Armed Forces Member sealed with a little love and cheer! Would you write a short note in a Christmas card, put it in its envelope and address the envelope "Any Canadian Armed Forces Member"? All the cards/notes that I receive at the Office by November 30, I will send to the Forces address in Ontario to forward to the members for Christmas. Let's spread some love!
